Kinder Care locations take special needs kids, but it's location dependent. Parents need to call the center closest to them and ask that location.
Southwest Childcare does take some special needs children but it's on a case by case basis and they require a note from the provider letting them know what's involved in the care of the child. Then it goes to Board of Directors to approve or not.

This is only a list of a few day care's that were checked in Albuquerque. It is a place that parents can start while looking for childcare for their special needs children.
